One great event after another at the Frazier. The Listening Room is a round-table discussion featuring pillars of the Louisville music community, Doug Van Buren, John Timmons, Marvin Maxwell, Ron Lewis and longtime LEO writer Michael L. Jones. The panelists will discuss and perform their favorite songs by Kentucky musicians. Kentucky Is: A Sound Experience will feature new, original works by the Louisville collective Poetry Is: A Sound Experience. This collective strives to enhance the Louisville literary and arts scenes through original poetry and performances to Kentuckiana music. —Aaron Yarmuth
